IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our beloved classmates and friends.

FOREWORD

Each year the Washingtonian brings to mind happy memories of wonderful high school days, teams and games, study and fun, pageants, vodvils, assemblies, classes and friendships — all vital spokes in the whirling wheel of high school life that spins along the well-worn and familiar path of education.

Since this Washingtonian will be in years to come a lasting remembrance of and a tribute to your days at Washington High, we, the class of '48, designed a yearbook which gives a realistic picture of the school year through photos and write-ups and has artistic relief through cartoons and still-lifes based on an Oriental theme.

This Washingtonian was designed for you, and the staff presents it with the sincere hope that it will bring you as much pleasure and pride as it brought us in creating it.

TRUSTEES

We the students, wish to express our gratitude to the trustees who have given us years of faithful service. They are behind the students in worthwhile projects and lend support to student activities.

It is regrettable that there have been changes in the board this school year. On November 4 Edward E. Enos resigned, creating a vacancy which was subsequently filled by the appointment of Joseph D. Gomes to the board.

The community was shocked to learn of the death of Mr. Gomes on Feb. 27. Again there was a vacancy to be filled. County Superintendent Vaughn Seidel then appointed E. A. Quaresma, Justice of the Peace in Niles, who is very capable and civic-minded. We are pleased with our newest member of the board.

E. A. QUARESMA

"OUR POP"

Many hundreds have passed through Washington's halls since Mr. Goold became principal, in 1942, but none have realized more fully than the class of '48 what a true friend he has been to each one of us.

Each year, through the four that we have spent here we have grown in our respect and admiration for "Pop". His genuine interest in student activities, and his personal interest in each individual has helped to make us feel that he is our friend and always will be.

We are happy to have been members of "Pop's" family. Among memories of our years at Washington will be our relationship with "Pop" and the constant good-will he helped create. We are proud to call Mr. Goold, "Our Pop".

W. E. GRAVESTOCK

Ending a wonderful and successful year, we of the Student Body, as well as the faculty and the administration, extend our thanks to Mr. Gravestock.

As Vice-Principal he has done his duties well by managing the admission to our football games, kept order about the campus during the noon hour, helped with our marvelous assemblies and countless other activities.

The Students of Evening School also thank Mr. Gravestock for being a fine Principal to them. He has helped all those with large and small problems. Many will return and find him at his work next fall.

The time has come for all of us to leave a wonderful school year. Again we thank you, Mr. Gravestock.

Mrs. Evelyn Rose and Miss Dorothy Enos are two important members of the faculty who serve both teachers and students. Mrs. Rose, better known to us as "Brownie", does her secretarial work in Room 1 while Dorothy Enos is Registrar in Room 3. At one time or another every one of us has called upon these kind friends for help and information, and it seems that no matter how busy they might be, answering telephones, writing tardy slips, and issuing new locker keys to students who often mislay theirs, they always try to answer our questions. Throughout the school year they are asked by teachers when they will receive their orders of books and other supplies or if the film they have sent for has arrived. Students ask about getting bids for dances, when the next holiday is, if a certain fountain pen has been turned in, and of course the Juniors wonder when their rings will come and Seniors anxiously await their pictures, constantly inquiring about them. On behalf of the faculty and students of Washington High the Washingtonian Staff wishes to express its appreciation for your help and kindness—"Brownie" and Dorothy.

OUR DEANS

This year's Washingtonian pays tribute to two especially important members of the faculty — the Counsellor of Girls and Counsellor of Boys. A counsellor's office is a place where students feel free to discuss personal matters with people who are qualified to listen and discuss. This gives the students a chance to talk things over.

For the past four years the counsellors have been Miss Knoles and Mr. Hird who have done an admirable job in helping to unburden students with weighty problems. These two merit the praise of the entire student body and hundreds of alumni.

The Washingtonian staff commends our counsellors and hope they will continue their work for many years to come.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Confronted with the usual number of knotty problems the Student Council ironed them out under the capable leadership of our president Roger Halliday.

Removal of the trays in the cafeteria and student conduct in the halls were only a couple of the projects undertaken by the Council. Most important to the students however, was the assemblies provided for their enjoyment.

The members of the Student Council were: Roger Halliday, president; Marvin Peixoto, vice-president; Nancy Bishop, secretary; Josephine Cheng, treasurer; Mary Corchero, yell-leader; Joe Salvador, Shirley Butler, Irving Alameda, Student Body representatives; Lorraine Rose, thletic manager; Barbara DeBorba, Hatchet editor; Audrey Aguiar, cafeteria bookkeeper; Joan Berney, Girls' League president; Diana Crossman, Annual editor; Mary Senn, Joy Silveira, Jim Griffin, John Castleman, Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshman class representatives respectively.

CUSTODIANS

Few students realize the importance of the custodians who bring us to school, take us home, keep the buildings and grounds in good shape, serve our good meals, and perform many other services.

Mrs. Nunes and Mrs. Gardetto do a fine job of taking care of the Girls' Gym.

Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Lewis prepare delicious lunches.

Mr. Alfred Andrade and Mr. Joe Dutra keep our class rooms and halls clean.

George Santos is doing a wonderful job in keeping the lawn and garden attractive, while Antone Andrade, who has previously done their work, is on leave of absence in Portugal. When Mr. Andrade returns he will be back on the job.

Mr. Marks, Mr. Sylva and Mr. Faria drive our school buses.

Mr. De Valle, our night watchman, also deserves special mention for a job well done.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF '48

On the evening of June 17, 1948, the commencement exercises were held for 118 graduates of Washington Union High School.

One of the first big events of the year for the seniors was the dedication of the football stadium on September 27, 1947.

During the last semester the seniors were hosts to the eighth graders of Washington Township. The future freshmen were given an opportunity to visit various class rooms where demonstrations were presented.

Other events during the year were senior nights and senior sneak day.

Last and not forgotten senior week activities, breakfast, graduation and the all important senior ball.

From the class of 1948 comes our wholehearted thanks to our advisers and to "Pop" for making possible four glorious years at W. U. H. S.

C. S. F.

The twenty-two members of Chapter III of the California Scholarship Federation have had a very active and interesting year.

The big event of the year was the annual California Scholarship Federation convention held at Washington High last spring. The C. S. F. was host to approximately four hundred other C. S. F. members from the Central district.

C. S. F. members are still continuing the worthwhile project started several years ago, collecting pictures for the Memorial Art Gallery.

Officers for this year were: President, D. Crossman; Vice-president, R. Cotton; Secretary, J. Harvey; Treasurer, L. Milani; Program chairmen, D. Shanks and R. Rogers.

The Girls' League, an organization which includes every girl in its membership from the day she enters school until her graduation, was organized to further friendliness and good fellowship.

Among its activities this year was the annual Big-Little Sister day, at which the Freshmen girls were welcomed. An outstanding event was the first formal dance sponsored by the Girls' League.

Officers, under the guidance of Miss Knoles, were J. Berney, President; V. Caldeira, Vice-president; J. Olivera, Secretary; W. Rogers, Treasurer; P. Galvin, Program chairman, and L. THE RALLY COMMITTEE

The Rally Committee, under the leadership of President Bob McIvor and Adviser Mr. Loze, organized a very interesting and beneficial program of activities for the school year. Each week pep-rallies were presented to the student body by members of the committee.

During football season, students were picked to decorate the goal posts, patrol the fields and stands, sell tickets and park cars. This year for the first time, girls were included in the membership. To the Rally Committee we say many thanks for a swell school spirit.

WASHINGTONIAN

This year's Washingtonian is as different as is the "Oriental Theme" the staff has chosen.

To get an early start on the book the editor was elected while still a junior. Before school had ended the editor had chosen her staff and made a fair start on planning the book. During the summer staff meetings were held so valuable time would not be lost. When school opened almost all of the details of the book were completely worked out.

This year's editor, Diana Crossman, chose Myra Burnsed and Bob De Salles as Associate Editors. Mary Burnsed was chief-typist. Joan Berney created the cartoons for the separation pages, and Barbara Jibson did the lettering and designed the cover. Al Kiep was chief-photographer assisted by Paul Vallerga and Bob Wasley.

For the first time two juniors were placed on the staff in the hope that they will be valuable members of the staff when they become seniors.

The staff hopes to preserve many old school memories for you in this book.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

This year's Christmas Pageant, "The Living Tree", was presented Sunday, December 22, before a capacity audience.

In four short scenes the pageant told how Boniface accompanied by Gregor, became a missionary in northern Europe, and how they converted the pagan Druids to Christianity.

Prominent in the cast were: Diana Crossman, as the Reader; Jean Olivera as the Abbes Addula; Albert Alberts as Gregor; Philip Enciso as Boniface; John Cordeniz as Thor; and Joseph Valcazar as the Druid priest.

Featured singers were Joyce Hunsburger, Lorraine McClain, Alex Garcia, John Meeker and Ralph Villescaz.

The dramatic parts of the pageant were directed by Mrs. Hartsog, and the choir was directed by Mr. Thornberg.

VODVIL

This year's vodvil was presented as a Minstrel Show. The show began with the entire cast singing Hello My Baby and Beautiful Doll in true Minstrel style. The scenes took us from old Uncle Remus' cabin and his age old tales of Br' Rabbit, to the deep jungles of Africa, where Witch doctors and cannibals made their appearance. And then to New Orleans where swing music and blues singing were born.

The acts were as follows:

BOYS' "W" CLUB

The Boys' "W" Club got off to a boom this year as they won the contest of selling student body cards over the Girls' "W" Club. This was the first time in four years that the Boys' "W" Club won. They were awarded a "pot luck" dinner with enjoyable entertainment from the losers.

Instead of having a dance this year, the club sponsored a basketball game between the Washington Alumni and a professional girls team, The American Redheads. They also had two initiations for the new members. To round out the year's activities a picnic was enjoyed by all the members.

A rule was set up this year for the wearing of the Block sweaters. The members were required to wear their sweaters every Wednesday. If this was not obeyed, a small fine was put on the violator.

This year the club was under the able leadership of Ruben Rodriguez, President; Roger Halliday, Vice-president; Joe Sankene, Secretary-Treasurer; and Phil Enciso and Dan Goularte, Sergeants at Arts.

GIRLS' "W" CLUB

The Girls' "W" Club is an organization for girls who enjoy competing in active sports. They are required to earn 700 points to be eligible for membership.

During the 1947 Hockey season the girls had two enjoyable trips to Stanford where they learned playing techniques and competed against other schools. They were also hostesses to other high schools and colleges at a Hockey Play Day.

The initiation was held in the form of a slumber party in the high school gym.

One of the projects underway is the redecoration of the "W" Club room. All members are doing their part and are anxious to view the results.

The officers for the year were President, Laverne Harvey; Vice-president, Mary Senn; Secretary, Shirley Butler; Treasurer, Pauline Nickas, and Ways and Means Chairman, Dorothy Shanks. Mrs. Nelson and Miss Mozzetti were helpful advisors.

WASHINGTON HUSKIES

The 1947 football squad, playing all of their home games under the lights of the Memorial Stadium, finished the season in fourth place in the S.C.V.A.L. league.

But that doesn't even begin to tell the story; for had it not been for a couple of conversion points in the wrong places the Huskies could have been at the top of the league.

Phil Enciso, one of the greatest linemen in the history of W.U.H.S., and Ruben Rodriguez, a triple threat fullback, were the Huskies co-captains and both took first-string positions on the All-S.C.V.A.L. team.

Eight other senior lettermen have played their last games for Washington. They are: Irving Alameda, Gerry Morley, Roger Halliday, Joe Salvador, Art Hughes, Jerry Nunes, Don Andrade and Clifford Fields.

130 FOOTBALL

The Washington High Puppies won three and tied one this season playing most of their games under the lights. The squad loses most of the experienced players for next year by graduation and promotion to the varsity.

Those graduating are Rose, Parry, Mohn, Brown, Fernandez, Zendejas and Peixoto.

Those probably moving up to varsity will be Elizarrey, Brownlee, Hashimoto, Bettencourt, Runolfson, Alvarado, Guerra, Silveira, Richards, Hernandez and Mendez.

The Washington High Huskies had quite a luckless year as they won only three of their eight league games. This places them pretty low in the league standings. With the fine and able coaching of Clyde Voorehees and the wonderful teamwork the boys gave their opponents stiff competition often losing only by three to five points and winning by wide margins. Lost through graduation will be Ruben Rodriguez, Irving Alameda, Lawrence Fernandez, Salvador Galvan, and Philip Enciso.

The Washington Hi "130's" finished one of the worst seasons with only one win out of eight games which also put them in the cellar of the SCVAL league. Coach Jud Taylor will be looking forward to next year with most of the team returning. Marvin Peixoto and Tamotsu Nishioka will be the only ones lost through graduation.

BASEBALL

The Washington Huskies, defending co-champions of the S. C. V. A. L., are off to what seems to be another successful year. Although Coach "Irv" Hird lost six of his valuable players through graduation, it seems that there are many good prospects to fill in.

The five returning lettermen on the squad were Joe Salvador, the slugging centerfielder; Lawrence Fernandez, a smooth working third baseman; Alvin Silva, long ball hitting left-fielder; Vernon Machado, the pint-sized shortstop flash; and Irving Alameda, who carried the brunt of the pitching duties for the Huskies.

Up from last year's reserves were Phil Enciso, who developed into a swell catcher and hitter; Henry Serbantes, a sophomore who looks like a second base prospect; Marvin Peixoto, who held down the first base spot satisfactorily; Don Andrade, a reconverted infielder who proved himself in right field; and Gene Bramwell, the curve-ball artist who shared the mound chores with Alameda.

Lost through graduation this year will be Phil Enciso, Joe Salvador, Irving Alameda, Marvin Peixoto, Lawrence Fernandez, Alvin Silva, and Don Andrade.
